AD News Justin Ohm, AD

CHEERLEADING: Cheerleading practice starts tomorrow for any girls in grades 3-4 who are interested in cheering at our basketball home games this season. Practices will run from 3:30-4:30 every Tuesday and Thursday.

BASKETBALL: The basketball season is officially underway. The coaches are excited to start another year of Raider basketball. Remember that this evening there is a Preseason Basketball Parents Meeting for the parents of the B Boys and A Girls. The B boys meeting is at 4:45 and the A girls is at 5:45 in the fellowship hall. The two main items are to hand out and go over the basketball schedule and sign up for the volunteer slots for our home games. Tomorrow the girls B team will have their meeting after practice at 4:45 and the A boys meeting will be at 5:45. If you can't make it to one particular meeting, you are welcome to attend any one of the 4 meetings.

Remember to check the Raider Review and the basketball calendar for any updates or changes in the schedule. Each week, before that Friday's game, a reminder chart will be put in the Raider Review showing which family is up for working that game. Also, if you are not receiving basketball group text messages from Mr. Ohm make sure he has your current cell phone number. Updates and changes that happen on short notice will be sent out via the text group (for example, if a practice or game has to be cancelled or postponed due to weather).

The first regular season game is next Friday (Nov. 11). COL will travel to Trinity in Belle Plaine for the first league game. Game times can be found on the online basketball calendar and the hard copy schedule. If you have any questions, contact Mr. Ohm. Good luck to all our teams this year. We pray God blesses our teams with a fun, successful and memorable season.

St. Croix Wrestling: St. Croix is inviting any boys in grades 7-8 grade that aren't involved in basketball, to participate on the St. Croix wrestling team. The season officially begins on Monday, November 21, with the first practice scheduled for 3:20 that afternoon. For more information, contact Mr. Cory Olson, the St. Croix wrestling coach @ 651-455-1521 x151.
